- a. unacceptable professional conduct (that is, conduct which falls short of the standard required of a Registered Person); or
  - b. serious professional incompetence;

or it appears to the Registrar that a Registered Person may be so guilty, the Registrar may carry out such investigations pursuant to section 14(1) of the Act and obtain such advice as the Registrar sees fit and if it then appears to the Registrar that a Registered Person may be so guilty, the Registrar shall refer the matter to an Investigations Panel.

7. The role of the Investigations Panel is to decide whether cases referred to it by the Registrar under Rule 6 of these Rules:

In deciding whether or not a case should be referred to the Professional Conduct Committee, the Investigations Panel shall consider whether there is a case to answer, taking into account whether the evidence provides a realistic prospect of a finding of unacceptable professional conduct and/or serious professional incompetence and whether it is in the public interest for the case to proceed.

Such a request shall be made in writing on the basis of advice by the Board's solicitor or the availability of new evidence. A decision of the Investigations Panel shall be deemed provisional and not a decision within section 14(2) of the Act until a report to the Professional Conduct Committee has been made.
14. On a reconsideration the Investigations Panel is to decide whether the case being reconsidered:

Third Party Review

16. Where the Investigations Panel has decided that a case should not be referred to the Professional Conduct Committee, and the complainant or architect is dissatisfied with the process by which that decision has been reached, that person may request a third party review of that process. A request for an independent third party review of process must be made within 30 days of the date of the written notification of the Investigations Panel's decision not to proceed to the Professional Conduct Committee. Upon receipt of a request for a review, the Registrar will appoint an independent third party ("the Reviewer"), who will conduct a review of the process in accordance within the Terms of Reference published by the Board from time to time. The Reviewer will submit a report to the Registrar, who will send it to the Investigations Panel and to the relevant parties within the timescale specified. The Investigations Panel may consider its content and decide whether to:
  - a. review its decision in light of any deficiency in its process (where it has the power to do so); or
  - b. take no further action, giving reasons to the Registrar and relevant parties.
